1964 Mirror and President Kennedy

Sixty years ago this month, the nation suffered the tragic loss of its young president, by assassination. The members of the class of 1964 were high school seniors when President John Fitzgerald Kennedy was killed in Dallas, Texas, on November 22, 1963. The class honored his memory by including a full page portrait, of the late President, in their high school yearbook on page 5. This portrait would also be hung on many homeowners' walls, throughout the nation, for years to come.
