

Ilion High School CLASS OF 1994 - Mirror Memoriam

Frank J. Audino III
April 4, 1992

Special people come in
and out of our lives.

Special people like
you.

You, Frank J. Audino,
meant a lot to us.

A good friend,
boyfriend,
tease, listener, & class
clown.

You were so much.

The day you left us we
cried out in pain,
trying to believe it
wasn't true.

It unfortunately was.
Suddenly, the tears we
were crying were
coming
from the pain your
death caused.

A kind of hurt we had not yet experienced.

We were very afraid. You opened up something new
for us to deal with.

With our consciences steady & calm,
we forced ourselves to go to school.

To mourn with all our
friends.

At the sound of your name
over the loudspeaker.
And for the few moments
of silence.....

We cried out in pain once
more, along with many others.

We comforted many.
People who didn't
even
know you felt
remorse &
sorrow.

The day was rough &
heartbreaking for us.

All of us wish it
never
happened.

We LOVE YOU so
much.

Your soul, we know,
is at
peace in the place
you will
forever rest.

Please look over us
all &
keep us safe.

You will be a part of me &
everyone else
as you always were.

But more.

We shall see you up
there
someday.

Then maybe when
our
time comes, we'll
know
what to look
forward
to, seeing you up
there
in the wonderful
place, I
hope, they call
HEAVEN!

It won't be long, just
please remember us,
the
way we will from
now &
forever remember &
cherish you In both
our
hearts & minds.

LOVE ALWAYS &
FOREVER,

BACK

Updated January 12, 1998